Wednesday, 23 October 2013 - 17:00
The Garden Room
St. Edmunds's College

The Lattey Lecture is devoted to Catholic Social Teaching and Biblical Studies and was established by Fr Reginald Fuller to commemorate the foundation of the Catholic Biblical Association of Great Britain by Rev Cuthbert Lattey SJ in St Edmund's in 1940.

Fr Timothy Radcliffe is the former Master of the Dominicans, a distinguished international speaker and author and the winner of the Michael Ramsey prize in theology 2007. He is the patron of the International Young Leaders Network and helped launch La Casas Institute (Blackfriars, Oxford) which works on issues of social justice, governance and humanitarian rights.
