BOOK LAUNCH

Wittgenstein and Interreligious Dis/Agreement

GORAZD ANDREJČ

with Ed Kessler MBE and Alban McCoy

Gorazd Andrejč will illustrate how Wittgenstein's work has been used by different approaches to interreligious dis/agreement and how it can elucidate such dis/agreements today. With responses from Ed Kessler and Alban McCoy.

Gorazd Andrejč is an affiliated lecturer and was previously a Junior Research Fellow at the Woolf Institute, Cambridge.

Ed Kessler MBE is Founder Director of the Woolf Institute, a Fellow of St Edmund's College, Cambridge and a leading thinker in interfaith relations.

Alban McCoy OFM Conv is Dean of St Edmund's College, Cambridge, and author of An Intelligent Person's Guide to Catholicism (Bloomsbury 2001) and An Intelligent Persons Guide to Christian Ethics (2006).
